

Piano Literature: MUH 311
Spring 2019

Please print this PDF, fill in the answers by hand, scan the document, then upload the completed document in Canvas. There is an easy-to-use scanner in the Library's Reference Area. See a librarian for help.

Name: _____

Library Worksheet

- Earn 25 possible points. (The rubric and grade comments will be visible to you in Canvas.)
- Print the assignment, fill it out by hand, scan it, then upload it in Canvas.
- Use Ryan Library's Piano Literature MUH 311 Research Guide (libguides.pointloma.edu/pianolit) for guidance.
- Use Ryan Library's catalog and databases. Google may not be used.
- Use MLA 8th edition for your citations. (Note: Some citation generators are still using the 7th edition, in which case the citation will need to be revised to reflect the 8th edition.)
- Upload the completed assignment in Canvas by Friday, February 8th, at midnight.

1. Please state your topic as completely and clearly as possible below. Your topic should be manageable for the extent of research you will be doing for your annotated bibliography. Choose a topic that is not too broad or too narrow.

2. Use Oxford Music Online, which includes "Grove's Music Online," to find an article that is relevant to your topic.
 - Please log-off Oxford Music Online when you are done using it, since this database only allows three simultaneous users.
 - Note: This citation generator usually includes mistakes in its citations. You will have to make corrections to the citation. Follow MLA 8th edition formatting.

➔ Provide a citation to your article below:

3. Use Music Periodicals Database to find one Peer-Reviewed journal article relevant to your topic.

- Choose “Advanced Search” (right above the search box).
- Under Search Options:
 - ✓ Check the box to limit your search to “Peer-Reviewed”.

➔ Provide a citation to your article below:

4. Use JSTOR to find one scholarly article relevant to your topic.
- Click on the “Advanced Search” link under the search box.
 - Limit search to Item Type: Articles (this will exclude book reviews and letters to the editor).

➔ Provide a citation to your article below:

5. Use WorldCat, the library’s catalog, to find 1 book or music score in Ryan Library relevant to your topic. If you can’t find a book/score owned by Ryan Library, you may request a print book on your topic through Camino, our Interlibrary Loan system.

- To find a book/score here at PLNU, limit your search to “Point Loma Nazarene University” at the top of the search screen. Ebooks are fine to use, as long as they are available to PLNU. (At the top of the record, it will say: “Libraries that own this item: Point Loma Nazarene University.”)
- To find music scores, go to the Advanced Search, and limit the Format to “Musical Score.”
- Camino
 - You cannot access ebooks or scores through Camino, only print books.
 - Change the default search from Libraries Worldwide to Camino. (Camino is simply a smaller network within WorldCat. Camino is an interlibrary loan service that allows you to order materials from other libraries.)

- Note: Search results always show items we own at PLNU first, then Camino items second. You may need to scroll down or “Sort Results: Date (Newest First)” to find books available through Camino.

➔ Provide a citation to the library book or score below:

7. Use Naxos Music Library to find a sound recording that relates to your topic.

- Please log-off Naxos when you are done using it, since it only allows a ten simultaneous users.

➔ Provide a citation to the NAXOS Music Library recording below:
